

3RD ANNOUNCEMENT

24TH SYMPOSIUM OF THE NEMATOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF
SOUTHERN AFRICA (NSSA)

Registration for the 24th Symposium is now open!

A stimulating, informative and fun-filled meeting will be provided at this picturesque venue surrounded by sloping hills within the mysterious Cradle of Humankind heritage site. Save the date to join our NSSA symposium on the most southern part of the African continent where friends and colleagues across the globe meet every second year!

Apart from the scientific program, we are planning on hosting a workshop on cover crops and its implication and role in soil health. There will also be a get-together, social event, for students who are the future leaders of our discipline and who will have to make sure our society keep flourishing!

Details will be provided at a later stage – keep watching our website sanematodes.com for these and make sure you don't miss out!!
